About Home for Good Dog Rescue

Home for Good Dog Rescue is a volunteer-based 501 (c)(3) non-profit animal rescue in Berkeley Heights, New Jersey. Our mission is to rescue homeless dogs from high-kill shelters, nurture them in our network of foster families and adopt them into their loving homes for good. We are funded by private donations from people who share our vision to save innocent homeless dogs and give them a second chance at life.

The Shackamaxon Country Club

Opened in 1916, Shackamaxon features a classic A.W. Tillinghast-designed course that boasts the architect's famous island green. Of all the holes that Tillinghast designed at Shackamaxon none received more notoriety than the ninth, one of the first island greens in the United States. The famous ninth green has been written about in several golf design books, newspaper articles and even used in advertisements. It was voted one of the most challenging holes in the metropolitan area.

Dear Friends,

On Tuesday, September 27, 2016, Home for Good Dog Rescue will hold its Annual "Par for Pups" Golf Outing at the Shackamaxon Country Club in Scotch Plains, New Jersey. The proceeds from this event go directly to help Home For Good continue its mission. Come enjoy a fun day of golf and dinner that evening.
